The day before, Saturday, one of the girls had sent a telegram to the young woman, (the wife of the second husband), informing her that the wedding was to be at 12 o'clock on Monday, and that she would be in town by 11 o'clock. The woman was delighted with the news, and said she would come to the wedding and help them get ready. The woman thanked her for the kindness, and said she would be there on time. The woman also said she would bring some gifts for the newlyweds. She arrived at the church at 11:30 and was greeted by the bride and groom. The ceremony lasted for about 30 minutes and was simple and beautiful. The couple then left the church and went to a nearby restaurant for lunch. After the meal, the couple retired to their room at the hotel, where they spent the night. They got up early the next morning and went to the airport, where they boarded a plane for their honeymoon trip. The flight was uneventful, and they arrived at their destination on time. They spent the next few days sightseeing and enjoying each other's company. The couple returned home after a month, and they were married the next day.
